

As a life long citizen of Fort Wayne Indiana I am quite satisfied with the current No Call law and fully support it remaining unchanged. I have never contributed to, nor done business with anyone who has made a solitious call to my home. I seek out those with whom I want to conduct business. I consider the call an intrusion expecially when the caller will not accept "NO" for an answer!